Dear Miss Weston,

This morning I have found Mr. Amory (of Thorndike hall). - He seemed ashamed of not having written to you, ~~before~~ but apologized on the score of being overcrowded with business. - He said he had talked with Mr. Thorndike, and they had concluded that they could not let the Hall for the Fair - the party season was beginning earlier than ever before - he had engaged for 28 parties; - regretted he could not accommodate you, but said it was impossible to do anything. - I fear it is too late now to do anything with him. -

Adm. being ill - (has narrowly escaped, if indeed she has escaped, a typhoid fever) - I go back to Leicester this afternoon. But you can ~~be~~ send either to Leicester this week, or to 21 Cornhill the first of next, any communication for me.

In haste, Yours -

S. May Jr

21 Cornhill -
